CERTIFICATION OF COUNSEL

On April 8, 2004, I attempted to contact David Cohen, Esquire, counsel for Plaintiff, to ascertain whether Plaintiff would consider withdrawing subpoenas issued by Plaintiff to Jack Challenger and Robert Corressel or whether we could resolve this dispute in some other way. I was advised that Mr. Cohen would be out of the office the rest of the week. I left a message on Mr. Cohen's voice mail, but he did not return my call. On April 9, 2004, I attempted to contact Wayne Ely, Esquire, co-counsel for Plaintiff, to ascertain whether Plaintiff would consider withdrawing subpoenas issued to Jack Challenger and Robert Corressel or whether we could resolve this dispute in some other way. Mr. Ely was not available to discuss this matter either.

Based on the nature of SEPTA's Motion to Quash Subpoenas, it is believed that this matter could not be resolved without the intervention of the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert J. Haurin
